

MIDWAY

Joe Probst
Midway's Honored Citizen

At an early age, probably ten, he earned $3.75 and bought his first livestock business ever since. His milk to the cheese plant in Heber with Albert Kohler.

He served a mission to the North of Latter-Day Saints in 1922 to 1924.

Joe married Garnet Watkins in 1926. They had 3 children; 2 sons, Calvin and Wayne, and a daughter, who died. They have great-grandchildren.

Joe has served his community as President of Midway-Charleston. He was elected Mayor of Midway in 1961. He got a PWA loan to rebuild the water hydrants at this time.

Joe has served as a Director of the original Directors of the Midway Branch.

In the early thirties, he, along with Albert Kohler, got the Forest Service to build a road so the wood could be hauled out.

Joe was one of the original directors, which is now Western Genealogy.

He has served two stake missions. In 1961 thru 1962 in the Central States YMMIA President, as well as in 1945, he served as a counselor in the temple worker in the Salt Lake Temple.

Joe has a strong testimony. At 86, he with Garnet, enjoy life and health.

Garnet W. Probst

MIDWAY—Garnet Watkins Probst, 82, died Oct. 19, 1984 in a Heber City hospital. Born Oct. 19, 1902 in Midway, Utah, to George T. and Francis Ohlweiler Watkins. Married Joseph Ernest Probst, Jan. 6, 1926 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He died Oct. 16, 1982.

Active member of the LDS Church. Member of the DUP. Served in the ward relief society and primary presidencies. Held many stake board positions. Served a mission with her husband to the Central States Mission, 1961-62.

Survived by sons: Calvin J., Charleston, Utah; Wayne W., Midway; 8 grandchildren; 5 great grandchildren; Sisters: Mrs. Burton (Lorna) VanWagon-

er, Midway; Mrs. Thomas K. (Reba) MacNaughtan, Heber City.

Funeral services were held Tues. 1:00 p.m. in the Midway 3rd Ward Chapel. Burial Midway Cemetery.

MIDWAY'S

Joe Probst
Midway's Honored Citizen

At an early age, probably ten, he earned $3.75 and bought his first livestock business ever since. His milk to the cheese plant in Heber with Albert Kohler.

He served a mission to the North of Latter-Day Saints in 1922 to 1924.

Joe married Garnet Watkins in 1926. They had 3 children; 2 sons, Calvin and Wayne, and a daughter, who died. They have great-grandchildren.

Joe has served his community as President of Midway-Charleston. He was elected Mayor of Midway in 1961. He got a PWA loan to rebuild the water hydrants at this time. Also served as a Director of the original Directors of the Midway Branch.

In the early thirties, he, along with Albert Kohler, got the Forest Service to build a road so the wood could be hauled out.

Joe was one of the originators and directors, which is now Western Genealogy.

He has served two stake missions. In 1961 thru 1962 in the Central States YMMIA President, as well as in 1945, he served as a counselor in the temple worker in the Salt Lake Temple.

Joe has a strong testimony of the gospel. At 86, he with Garnet, enjoy life and health.

Garnet W. Probst

MIDWAY—Garnet Watkins Probst, 82, died Oct. 19, 1984 in a Heber City hospital. Born Oct. 19, 1902 in Midway, Utah, to George T. and Francis Ohlweiler Watkins. Married Joseph Ernest Probst, Jan. 6, 1926 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He died Oct. 16, 1982.

Active member of the LDS Church. Member of the DUP. Served in the ward relief society and primary presidencies. Held many stake board positions. Served a mission with her husband to the Central States Mission, 1961-62.

Survived by sons: Calvin J., Charleston, Utah; Wayne W., Midway; 8 grandchildren; 5 great grandchildren; Sisters: Mrs. Burton (Lorna) VanWagon-

er, Midway; Mrs. Thomas K. (Reba) MacNaughtan, Heber City.

Funeral services were held Tues. 1:00 p.m. in the Midway 3rd Ward Chapel. Burial Midway Cemetery.